

Famous People in Science

Sir David Attenborough

Sir David Attenborough (1926-) is a British naturalist and television personality, world-famous for writing, presenting and producing award-winning wildlife documentaries. A great communicator, educator and campaigner, his distinctive voice has brought the world of wildlife into our homes for more than 60 years, captivating generations across the globe.

Fun Facts:

David Attenborough was born in the same year as Queen Elizabeth II.

- He is one of the most travelled people in history, having reached every continent on Earth, and is the oldest person to visit the North Pole, aged 83.
- David Attenborough doesn't drive and has never passed his driving test.

He is the only person to have won a BAFTA award (British Academy of Film and Television Arts) for black and white, colour, HD, 3D and 4K programmes.

David Attenborough Quotes

"The natural world... is the greatest source of so much in life that makes life worth living."

"I just wish the world was twice as big and half of it was still unexplored."

"Cherish the natural world, because you're part of it and you depend on it."

Y4 CHALLENGE

Watch the video story about David Attenborough- <https://youtu.be/oAh-UOWBfI4>

You will also find it on today's blog post.

The create a broad sheet or a fact file about David Attenborough. Consider the layout, and leave room for a picture.